

2014
november 20-23
Olympia Theater
at Gusman Center
174 E. Flagler Street, Miami, Florida

2014 Festival Trailer

Wednesday, September 25, 6pm RECENT CINEMA FROM SPAIN -- KICK OFF PARTY

Event RSVP

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO A SPECIAL KICK OFF PARTY

Hosted by EGEDA and The Olympia Theater to present the IV edition of the RECENT CINEMA FROM SPAIN in Miami and the first lineup of selected films.

Recent Cinema From Spain IV (November 20-23, 2014) will showcase the newest and best of Spain's rich and vibrant films and celebrates the culture Spanish Cinema with screenings and discussions with filmmakers.

Our exclusive KICK OFF Party is an annual event with a one hour reception for Cinema Fans, Media, Sponsors and Filmmakers, announcement of the films scheduled to play at Recent Cinema from Spain IV and a screening of early work by a director featured in the series. This year a special screening of Dark Blue Almost Black | Azuloscurocasinegro will cap off the evening.

Dark Blue Almost Black | Azuloscurocasinegro is the film debut written and directed by Daniel Sánchez Arévalo, winning 3 Goya Awards and a host of international prizes. Daniel Sánchez Arévalo directed the trailer for this year's edition of Recent Cinema From Spain and his newest film Family United will be featured during the series in November. Also attending the KICK OFF will be DEMO, the artist for this year's poster with a special exhibition of his work in the Olympia Theater Lobby.

RSVP above or by e-mail.

KICK OFF PROGRAM – September 25:

6:00pm: Cocktail Reception

7:30pm: Recent Cinema from Spain IV Film and Program Announcements

8:00pm: Special screening of Spanish Filmmaker Daniel Sánchez Arévalo's Award Winning 2006 Directorial Debut Feature Dark Blue, Almost Black | Azuloscurocasinegro

Event RSVP