

AMERICA READS SPANISH

America Reads Spanish, aimed to increase the use and reading of our language through the thousands of libraries, schools and book stores of the US.

Recent Cinema from Spain starts this week in Miami with the premier of "The Unexpected Life"

For three days, November 20 to 23, Miami will host the IV edition of Recent Cinema From Spain, that also includes the premier screening of "Ismael" "10.000KM", "Family United" among other films, and a round table with filmmakers and actors attending this year's event.

The event is presented by EGEDA, the Spanish Audiovisual Producers' Rights Management Association and the Olympia Theater at Gusman Center in collaboration with The Spanish Institute of Cinematography and Audiovisual Arts (ICAA).
