Following the tremendous success of the last three editions, which attracted audiences of almost 4,000 each year, the FOURTH edition of the Recent Cinema from Spain Series will be returning to Miami, FL to host a four day Spanish film event celebrating the diversity of contemporary Spanish cinema. Held at The Olympia Theater at Gusman Center for the Performing Arts, the series will showcase six of Spain's most recognized films of the year. Ticket and pass holders will enjoy nightly premieres and participate in Q&A sessions with filmmakers and cast members following each film. Kicking off the event will be a red-carpet opening night gala on Thursday, November 20, 2014 followed by a VIP reception.

This year we count with the special collaboration of DEMO, one of Spain's most original and internationally acclaimed artists, a multidisciplinary creator with an unmistakable aesthetic rooted in Pop Art. Who has kindly contributed his talents to bring the image of the Spanish series through a vibrant and colorful artwork composition.

In his own words: "I wanted to make a subtle reference to the logo of RECENT CINEMA FROM SPAIN. Symbolizing with colorful spheres and loose strokes the game that is the film industry, in which you never stop dreaming and feeling. A form of venturing into a story in order to live it fully. Adding the image of the heart of all of the people that are in the film industry, their work, their dedication, their passion."

(Film schedule to be announced on www.miami.recentcinemafromspain.com as well as at the pre-VIP kick-off event at The Olympia Theater in September.)

A series pass for all six films is now available for purchase at www.olympiatheater.org for $50 (plus processing fees). Information regarding the announcement of the film titles and guests will be released in the coming weeks.
